Article I. Name and purpose

Section 1.01

The name of this Chapter shall be the Utah Chapter of the American Society for Public Administration, hereafter referred to as the Chapter.

Section 1.02

This Chapter is organized for the professional and educational purposes of exclusively charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended ("Code"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such purposes include the following:

a) Advancing the science, processes, and art of public administration.

b) Advancing the equality of opportunity of all persons through public administration.

c) Upholding, and promoting integrity, ethics and professionalism in the public service.

d) Facilitating the exchange of knowledge and experience among people interested or engaged in the field of public administration.

In furtherance of its exclusively charitable and educational purposes, the Chapter shall have all general powers of an unincorporated association under the law of the State of Utah as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended, together with the power to solicit and accept grants and contributions for such purposes.

Section 1.03

The Chapter shall serve the State of Utah.
Article II. Membership

Section 2.01
Any person anywhere in the state of Utah interested in the purposes of the Chapter shall be eligible for membership.

Section 2.02
All individuals holding membership in the Chapter shall have the right to vote for the President-elect, Council members at-large, stand for election to office, attend meetings of the Council, and may have such other rights and benefits of membership as the Council may from time to time determine.

Section 2.03
Chapter membership shall terminate automatically without the necessity of any action by the Chapter whenever any member fails to pay dues when said dues are due and payable.

Article III. Officers and the Council

Section 3.01
The Officers of this Chapter shall be a President, President-elect, Secretary, and Treasurer. The duties of the officers shall be as described in Addendum I.

Section 3.02
The governing body of the Chapter shall be the Chapter Council (herein "Council"), which shall consist of the Chapter Officers, the most recent Past President, and 6 Council members at large, four (4) to be elected each year for two years term. The Council shall manage the affairs of the Chapter and its actions shall follow the general policies of the Chapter. The president shall serve as presiding officer of the Council. The President-elect shall, in the absence of the President, serve as the presiding officer of the Council.

Section 3.03

The President-elect shall serve for three (3) consecutive years on the Council as President-elect, the President and as Past-President respectively. The members at-large shall have two (2) year terms.

Section 3.04

The President, with the consent of the Council, shall appoint a Chapter Secretary from the Council. The Secretary may serve one two (2) year term with the option to be re-appointed for an additional two (2) year term upon reelection to the Council. The Secretary shall be responsible for providing the clerical and administrative support for the Council and ensuring that the actions of the Chapter are documented. See Addendum 1 for the Secretary's key responsibilities.

Section 3.05

The President, with the consent of the Council, shall appoint a Chapter Treasurer from the Council. The Treasurer may serve one two (2) year term with the option to be re-appointed for an additional two (2) year term upon election to the Council. The Treasurer shall be responsible for ensuring that the current financial records are maintained and reflect the financial condition of the Chapter. The financial records need to include cash, outstanding advances, investments, accounts receivable, and other assets, accounts payable, and fund balances. See Addendum 1 for the Treasurer's key responsibilities.
Section 3.06

Officers and Council members shall serve until their successors are elected or appointed to the office. The President shall make interim appointments to fill any vacancies on the Council. Any vacancy in the office of the President or President-elect shall be filled by an interim appointment of the Council from among its own membership. All interim appointees shall serve until the next regular election.

Section 3.07

A simple majority of the Council members including the Officers shall constitute a quorum which is 50% +1 of the Council membership.

Section 3.08

All persons comprising the Council shall be members of the American Society for Public Administration or shall become members within thirty days after election or appointment and shall be Chapter members in good standing.

Section 3.09

Council Officers shall attend meetings of the Council and all committee meetings in which they have been assigned either in person or by other electronic methods.

Section 3.11

Council members shall be issued a show-cause notice at the end of the third consecutive meeting from which the Council member is absent in person or by means of other communication methods without informing the President or President-elect. Failure to respond adequately as deemed by the Council may result in removal from the Council. The Council by a two third (2/3) majority vote may reinstate or replace the removed member.
Section 3.12

Officers and Council members at-large may resign from the Council by giving written notice to the President, specifying the date of such resignation. In the event of the President’s resignation, notice shall be given to the Secretary. The Council may remove an Officer or a Council member at-large by a two-third (2/3) majority vote for violation of the ASPA Code of Ethics or any conduct that may cause damage to ASPA’s standing as a public serving organization.

Article IV. Nominations and Elections

Section 4.01

The President-elect shall automatically succeed to the office of the President upon completion of the President's term. Only the President-elect and four (4) Council members shall be elected annually.

Section 4.02

Nominations for the President-elect and Council members-at-large shall be made by a nominating committee. The nominating committee shall consist of the most recent Past-President, who is still a member and willing to serve plus two (2) regular members of the Council to be appointed by the President at least ninety (90) days before the annual meeting.

Section 4.03

The nominating committee shall provide each Chapter member with an electronic ballot no less than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the annual meeting. The ballot shall include the candidates for President-elect and Council members at-large together with biographical information on each candidate.
Section 4.04

Space shall be provided on the ballot for writing in the names of additional candidates. A write-in candidate must be willing to serve if elected.

Section 4.05

The nominee receiving the highest number of votes for the President-elect position shall be elected. The top four (4) candidates running to become Council members shall be elected as members at-large.

Section 4.06

In the event of a tie vote, the winner will be determined by the flip of a coin by the current President at a Council meeting.

Section 4.07

The President shall announce the results of the elections at the annual meeting of the membership.

Section 4.08

The President shall serve for a term of one (1) year. The Council members shall have two (2) year terms and will serve until their successors are elected. The terms of the Council members at-large and the Officers shall start on July 1.

Section 4.09

The incumbent President shall start a transition process after the annual meeting which shall include but not limited to updating banking documents, meetings and events schedule, transfer of ASPA records and documents. The final handover shall take place at the first Council meeting following the annual meeting.
Article V. Meetings and Programs

Section 5.01

This Chapter shall hold at least four program activities during the designated Chapter year, including the annual meeting of the membership.

Section 5.02

The annual meeting of the membership shall be held during the second quarter of every year. The meeting time and place shall be decided by the Council.

Section 5.03

Other meetings and programs of the Chapter shall be held at times and places designated by the President of the Council.

Section 5.04

Chapter members shall be given at least thirty (30) calendar days electronic notice in writing of the time, place, and the scheduled business to be considered at the annual meeting of the membership.

Section 5.05

The President or Council may call a special meeting of the membership.

Article VI. Committees and Advisors

Section 6.01
The Council may establish committees for various purposes. Committee chairs and members shall be appointed by the President. All such committees shall terminate at the end of their appointed term.

Section 6.02

The Council by majority vote may disestablish a committee when the committee no longer meets its intended purposes or has completed its assignment.

Section 6.03

The Council may appoint an advisor to the Council. The advisor shall be a non-voting member of the Council. The advisor shall provide the Council with objective opinion and input on Chapter initiatives and programs in furthering the Chapter’s mission.

Article VII Section

Section 7.01

The Council may establish Chapter sections in conjunction with sections of the American Society for Public Administration or, whenever 10 Chapter members so request. The members of said sections shall elect a Chairperson, with approval of the Council.

Article VIII Fee

Section 8.01

The portion of the national membership dues designated for rebate to the Chapter shall constitute the fee for Chapter membership.
Section 8.02

Other fees as deemed necessary for Chapter programs and events may be assessed by the Council.

Article IX. Amendments

Section 9.01

Amendments to this Constitution may be made in the following manners:

a) Amendments may be proposed by the Council or the Chapter membership. Such proposed amendments are to be submitted to the Chapter membership via electronic ballot for voting thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting and such proposed amendments may be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the responding members.

b) Amendments proposed by the Chapter membership shall have at least 10% Chapter members signing the amendment proposal and submitting it to the Council sixty (60) days prior to the annual meeting for electronic voting in accordance with Article IX, Section 9.01(a) of this Constitution.

Section 9.02

Consistent with inclusion of this Chapter in the group federal income tax exemption ruling of the American Society for Public Administration (identify by the Internal Revenue Service as Group Exemption Number 3155), all amendments to the Chapter Constitution which may be made from time to time shall be submitted to the American Society for Public Administration for its approval.
